

Driving Safely

- Interactive Flash
- Video
- SCORM
- Classroom
- Interactive Standard

Many people don't take any further driving courses once their test has been passed. A number of employees are now expected to drive as part of their job. This driving safety course follows a journey between two colleagues in a comic book strip effect. The story follows the journey through to a fatal crash and the following court case, showing the trainee the serious consequences bad driving can cause.

Course Content:

The Pick Up

- Time Pressure/Work Schedule
- Effects of alcohol

The Journey

- Speed
- Distraction
- Daily Checks
- Journey Planning

The Changeover

- Vehicle security
- Vehicle condition
- Stress
- Mobile phones
- Medical conditions
- Motorcycles
- Use of signals
- Parking/stopping in a dangerous position
- Loose items in the vehicle cab
- Keep your distance
- Bad weather driving
- Vehicle dynamics and skidding

The Destination

- State of mind
- Non-driving responsibilities

The Crash

- Are you fit for the journey?
- Is your vehicle fit for the journey?

The Court

- Consequences - Moral
- Consequences - Legal

Who is it for?

- New employees
- Company car drivers
- Occasional company car drivers
- Ideal for Sales Representatives who travel during their working day

Duration:

- 30 minutes

Available in:

- Interactive – Flash
- Video
- SCORM
- Classroom
- Interactive – Standard